CENTER FOR NONPROFIT
EXCELLENCE

A program of the Community Foundation of North Central Florida

The Board Academy

The Board Academy is a three-hour workshop providing knowledge and skills to current board and staff members and those who wish to be placed on a nonprofit board at the conclusion of the training. Through engaging presentations from nonprofit experts and interactive role-playing, participants learn board member responsibilities and how these responsibilities relate to others within the organization. The Board Academy workshop topics include: Roles and Rules, Financial Policies and Fiduciary Duties, Legal Considerations and Meeting and Committee Management
